POSITION OVERVIEW

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Ohio is accepting resumés and applications for the position of Courtroom Deputy, located in Cincinnati, Ohio. Courtroom Deputies are assigned by the Clerk of Court to support the judicial officer by performing the following duties: managing the judge's caseload, scheduling, attending and documenting court proceedings, processing and issuing orders. This position interacts with the public and lawyers; it involves a close working relationship with the judge and other chambers and Clerk's Office staff. This job entails a high level of knowledge and complexity regarding court and courtroom operations.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES

- Manage the judge's cases and hearing dockets by calendaring and setting hearings, including distributing and monitoring deadlines.
- Serve as office manager for chambers.
- Keep the judge and immediate staff informed of case progression.
- Act as a liaison between the Clerk's Office, the bar, and the judge to ensure cases proceed smoothly and efficiently.
- Serve as a primary source of information for litigants about the court's schedule, including trials, hearings, and conferences.
- Plan ahead to ensure the orderly flow of proceedings including, but not limited to: setting up the courtroom; assuring presence of all necessary participants, including appropriate courtroom security; providing training to attorneys on electronic display system; taking notes of proceedings, rulings and notices; managing exhibits; preparing minutes of the proceedings; and preparing statistical reports.
- Review Chapter 13 cases in preparation for confirmation hearings.
- Prepare executive correspondence, legal documents, and other materials for the judge's review and signature.
- Review, edit, and proofread materials prepared by others for the judge's signature for accuracy, proper format, proper grammar, notice to interested parties, and time limits.
- Provide administrative support to the judge, e.g., receive, screen, prioritize, and route all incoming telephone calls, visitors, mail and administrative and case-related materials to appropriate individuals in the office; make travel arrangements; organize and maintain multiple filing systems; assist in the preparation of presentation material; proofread documents; and post opinions to website and/or to Westlaw and/or Lexis/Nexis.
- Answer routine inquiries and provide assistance to counsel, court officials, litigants and members of the public, as authorized, maintaining the confidentiality of sensitive matters and without giving legal advice.

- Assist the judge with legal research, when appropriate.
- Prepare orders per the judge's instruction or per chambers' policies and procedures.
- Perform assigned duties related to the unique needs of the judge in connection with various committees.
- Create and format chambers-specific documents and forms.
- Maintain chambers manuals.
- Perform assigned duties related to the unique needs of the judge.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify for this position at the entrance level, a person must be a high school graduate or equivalent with a minimum of two years of general experience and one year of specialized experience equivalent to work at CL-25.

General experience is defined as progressively responsible clerical, office, or other work that indicates the possession of, or the ability to acquire, the particular knowledge and skills needed to perform the duties of the position.

Specialized experience is defined as progressively responsible clerical or administrative experience requiring the regular and recurring application of clerical procedures that demonstrate the ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives, or laws and involve the routine use of specialized terminology and automated software and equipment for word processing, data entry or report generation. Such experience is commonly encountered in law firms, legal counsel offices, banking and credit firms, educational institutions, social service organizations, insurance companies, real estate and title offices, and corporate headquarters or human resources/payroll operations.

Education above the high school level may be substituted for required general experience on the basis of one academic year (30 semester or 45 quarter hours) equals one year of general experience. Education may not be substituted for specialized experience because operational court support positions require hands-on experience to be credited as specialized experience.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

Strong paralegal or legal assistant background, including specialized experience gained in legal setting or a court setting.

Excellent verbal and written communication skills, including superior editing and proofreading skills and mathematical aptitude.

Excellent organizational skills and the ability to plan, manage, prioritize, and execute on multiple assignments and responsibilities in a fast-paced environment.

Ability to work independently and anticipate needs and problems, and to exercise good judgment, initiative, and problem-solving skills.

Ability to work quickly and harmoniously with others in a team-based environment.

Punctuality and an ability to meet short deadlines in high-pressure situations.

Proficient computer skills, including demonstrated knowledge of and skill in using Microsoft Office Suite, WordPerfect, Lotus Notes, and the federal courts' Case Management/Electronic Case Files (CM/ECF) system and familiarity with legal research databases, such as Lexis and Westlaw. Must have the ability to adapt to changing technologies and to learn new systems as needed.

Demonstrated proficiency and accuracy in office protocols and administrative practices such as calendaring, travel planning, preparation of travel vouchers, typing, photocopying, assembling, filing, record keeping, telephone usage, and equipment maintenance.

Must have a positive attitude, deliver outstanding customer service, interact tactfully with court staff, counsel, trustees, litigants, and the public, and present a professional image for the court at all times.

Ability to maintain strict confidentiality of all office and judicial matters.
